

Langton Matravers Parish Council

Privacy Notice: Staff (Employee and Volunteer)

The following is a description of the way we, Langton Matravers Parish Council (LMPC), hold and process staff and volunteer information.

Staff Information

We may gather some information from previous employers and other organisations. We will only gather information from you if it is required by us to carry out our official functions or to fulfil a contractual obligation. The information we collect, hold and share includes:

- Personal details (such as name, contact details and date of birth)
- Disciplinary and attendance records
- Financial information
- Education and employment details

We may, where processing is necessary for the purpose of carrying out employment and our official functions also collect, hold and share sensitive data including

- Physical or mental health details
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Trade union membership
- Offences and alleged offences (including criminal proceedings and outcomes)

Why we collect and use this data

We use this data:

- To deliver the functions and services of a parish council
- To support and manage our employees and volunteers
- To maintain our own accounts and records
- To administer the Council properly

Lawful Basis

The lawful basis for the above processing is to:

- enable LMPC to discharge its responsibilities as a Public Authority.
- comply with contractual obligations
- comply with legal obligations

Data Sharing

We may need to share some of your personal information with other organisations including:

- family, associates and representatives of the staff member or volunteer whose personal data we are processing
- current, past or prospective employers
- central and local government
- healthcare professionals
- social and welfare organisations

- courts and tribunals
- suppliers (including professional advisors)
- voluntary and charitable bodies
- press and media

Data: Its retention and how it is held and processed

Your information will be held for no longer than is necessary. Though LMPC may, in the public interest, continue to hold some data for archival, statistical and/or research purposes.

Your information will be held and processed securely and will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area (EEA) except to those countries or international organisations which are deemed suitable by the ICO.

LMPC does not make use of “automated individual decision making” (decisions made by automated means without any human involvement) nor does it use “profiling” (automated processing of personal data to evaluate or predict certain events or behaviours about an individual).

Your rights

You have the right to request access to information that we hold about you. To make a request for your personal information contact the parish clerk. You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Subsequently, you may contact the Information Commissioner’s Office at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>.

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice or make a complaint, please contact the parish clerk: by letter at the parish office, by telephone on 01929 425100 or by email to clerk@langtonmatravers-pc.gov.uk.

Adopted by Resolution of the Council 14th June 2018

Reviewed and revised by resolution of the Council, 12th June 2025

Reviewed and approved without change by resolution of the Council, 14th May 2026